

RIGHT TO INSPECT FINANCIAL ACCOUNTS

London Pensions Fund Authority's Statement of Accounts for the year ended 31 March 2019 has been published. The accounts are currently being audited and may be subject to change.

As a registered elector, you have legal rights to inspect, ask questions about and challenge items in the authority's accounts.

These rights can only be exercised during a single 30 working-day period ('the inspection period') and are set out in the following sections of the Local Audit and Accountability Act 2014:

- Section 25 – Inspection of statements of accounts
- Section 26 – Inspection of documents
- Section 27 – Right to make objections at audit
- Section 28 – Declaration that item of account is unlawful

A guide to your rights is available on the National Audit Office website.

NOTICE OF PUBLIC RIGHTS

1. Notice is hereby given under section 15(2)(b) of the Accounts and Audit Regulations 2015 that from 1 June 2019 to 12 July 2019 between 9.00am and 5.00pm Monday to Friday, any person interested may on reasonable notice inspect and make copies of the accounts of the authority for the year ended 31 March 2019 and all books, deeds, contracts, bills vouchers and receipts, except as provided for in Section 26(4) to 26(6) of the Local Audit and Accountability Act 2014 in relation to commercially confidential and personal information.
2. The accounts and other documents will be available for inspection at 169 Union Street, London, SE1 0LL by prior arrangement. Please contact LPFA's Section 151 Officer on corporate@lpfa.org.uk to make an appointment.
3. From 1 June to 12 July 2019, a Local Government Elector or his/her representative has the opportunity to ask the auditor about the accounts.
4. From 1 June to 12 July 2019, any such elector may make objections to the auditor under Section 27 of the Local Audit and Accountability Act 2014. The auditor can take action under:
 - Section 28 of the Local Audit and Accountability Act 2014, namely, to apply to the court for a declaration that an item is contrary to law, and/or
 - Section 24, paragraph 1 of Schedule 7 of the Local Audit and Accountability Act 2014, to make a report in the public interest.
5. No objection may be made unless the auditor has previously received written notice of the proposed objection, specifying the facts on which the objector relies and the grounds on which the objection is being made. A copy of that written notice must also be sent to the council at the following address:

Abigail Leech
Section 151 Officer
2nd Floor, 169 Union Street
London
